Evaluation criteria for the Scrum-review-process

Gruppe 8 – Jan Sebastian Heick, Alexander Thiess, Simon Niclas Stambor

All statements are to be rated on a Scale from 0 to 10, where 0 is "not fulfilled" and 10 is "completely fulfilled".

Statements:

The Scrum Board shows a detailed portrayal of the current project state. Even a person not deeply involved in the project can comprehend what is done, what is actively worked on and what the future goals are.

The participants express themselves fluently and grammatically correct.

The stakeholder was able to successfully track the project progress and contribute their questions.

The Scrum Review has provided an opportunity to assess project progress, identify any issues, and establish priorities for future product development.

All participants actively contributed to the review in a constructive and beneficial manner.